

Outcomes for FY 17

Advanced Opportunities

Supporting Schools and Students to Achieve

SHERRI YBARRA, ED.S., SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Outcomes

27,859 students served
153,728 dual credits earned
126 associate degrees by high school students
$13 million spent
$46 million in college tuition savings

4 to 1 Return on Investment

Grade Level Breakdown

Participation by Grade

General Education Core

69% of dual credits taken align with general education core courses

Course Choice

- High school campus
- Online
- College-Campus
- Mix and match

- College
- Technical School
- Military
- Trade School
- Workforce

Overload Courses

4,936 students took 7,530 overload courses

Exams

1,674 Professional Certification (CTE)

12,671 Advanced Placement (AP)

469 International Baccalaureate (IB)

369 College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Early Graduation Scholarships

86 scholarships awarded to early graduates

College Advisors & Career Mentors

ADVANCED
OPPORTUNITIES

Communication

Meet Abby and Emma

$22,901.08
in tuition savings for the Childress
Family

27 credits by the end of junior year

49 credits while in high school

Advanced Opportunities

Dual Credit Outcomes

More High School Graduates are Earning Dual Credits

Share of high school students who earned some dual credit

Graduates are Earning more Dual Credits

Share of high school students who earn some dual credit

Dual Credit Graduates Go On to College

Immediate college attendance rates by dual credits earned

Correlation between Dual Credit and First Year College GPA

Dual Credit Graduates likely to stay in College

First year retention rates by dual credits earned

High School Students Graduating With Associate Degrees

Graduation year	Number of Students
2012-13	34
2013-14	24
2014-15	65
2015-16	86
2016-17	126

Results by Demographic Group

Underserved Students	Percentage who graduated with some form of dual credit (2014-15)
Students eligible for free and reduced price lunch (FRPL)	31%
Students not FRPL eligible	43%

Ethnicity	Percentage who graduated with some form of dual credit (2015-16)
Hispanic Students	32%
Native American Students	29%
African American Students	28%
Asian Students	39%
Caucasian Students	44%

Results by Gender

Students	Percentage who graduated with some form of dual credit (2015-16)
Female	49%
Male	35%

Statewide Dual Credit

Annual Credit Hours Taken & Enrollment

